

In the matter of the petition of J. B. Riason and others, for the Incorporation of the Village of Laurelville.

The foregoing case came up for hearing, whereupon Milton Armstrong and Asa Strous, by their Attorney Col. Seth Hedy, presented a motion to dismiss the proceedings on account of certain informalities.

The Board after patiently hearing the arguments by counsel for applicants and for remonstrators, on motion continued the case for correction until Monday May 13 A.D. 1889 at 10 o'clock - By vote Yeas 3 Nays 0.

Logan, O., Monday May 13th 1889

In the matter of the petition of J. B. Riason and others for the Incorporation of the Village of Laurelville O.

The foregoing petition came up for final disposition. By vote of Yeas 3, Nays 0.
