

A hand-drawn map on a piece of paper with a wavy border. The map depicts a region with several rectangular areas. A central point is marked with a dot and labeled 'DAVE' and '5th'. To the right of this point, there is a label '24V'. The map is drawn in blue ink on a light-colored background.

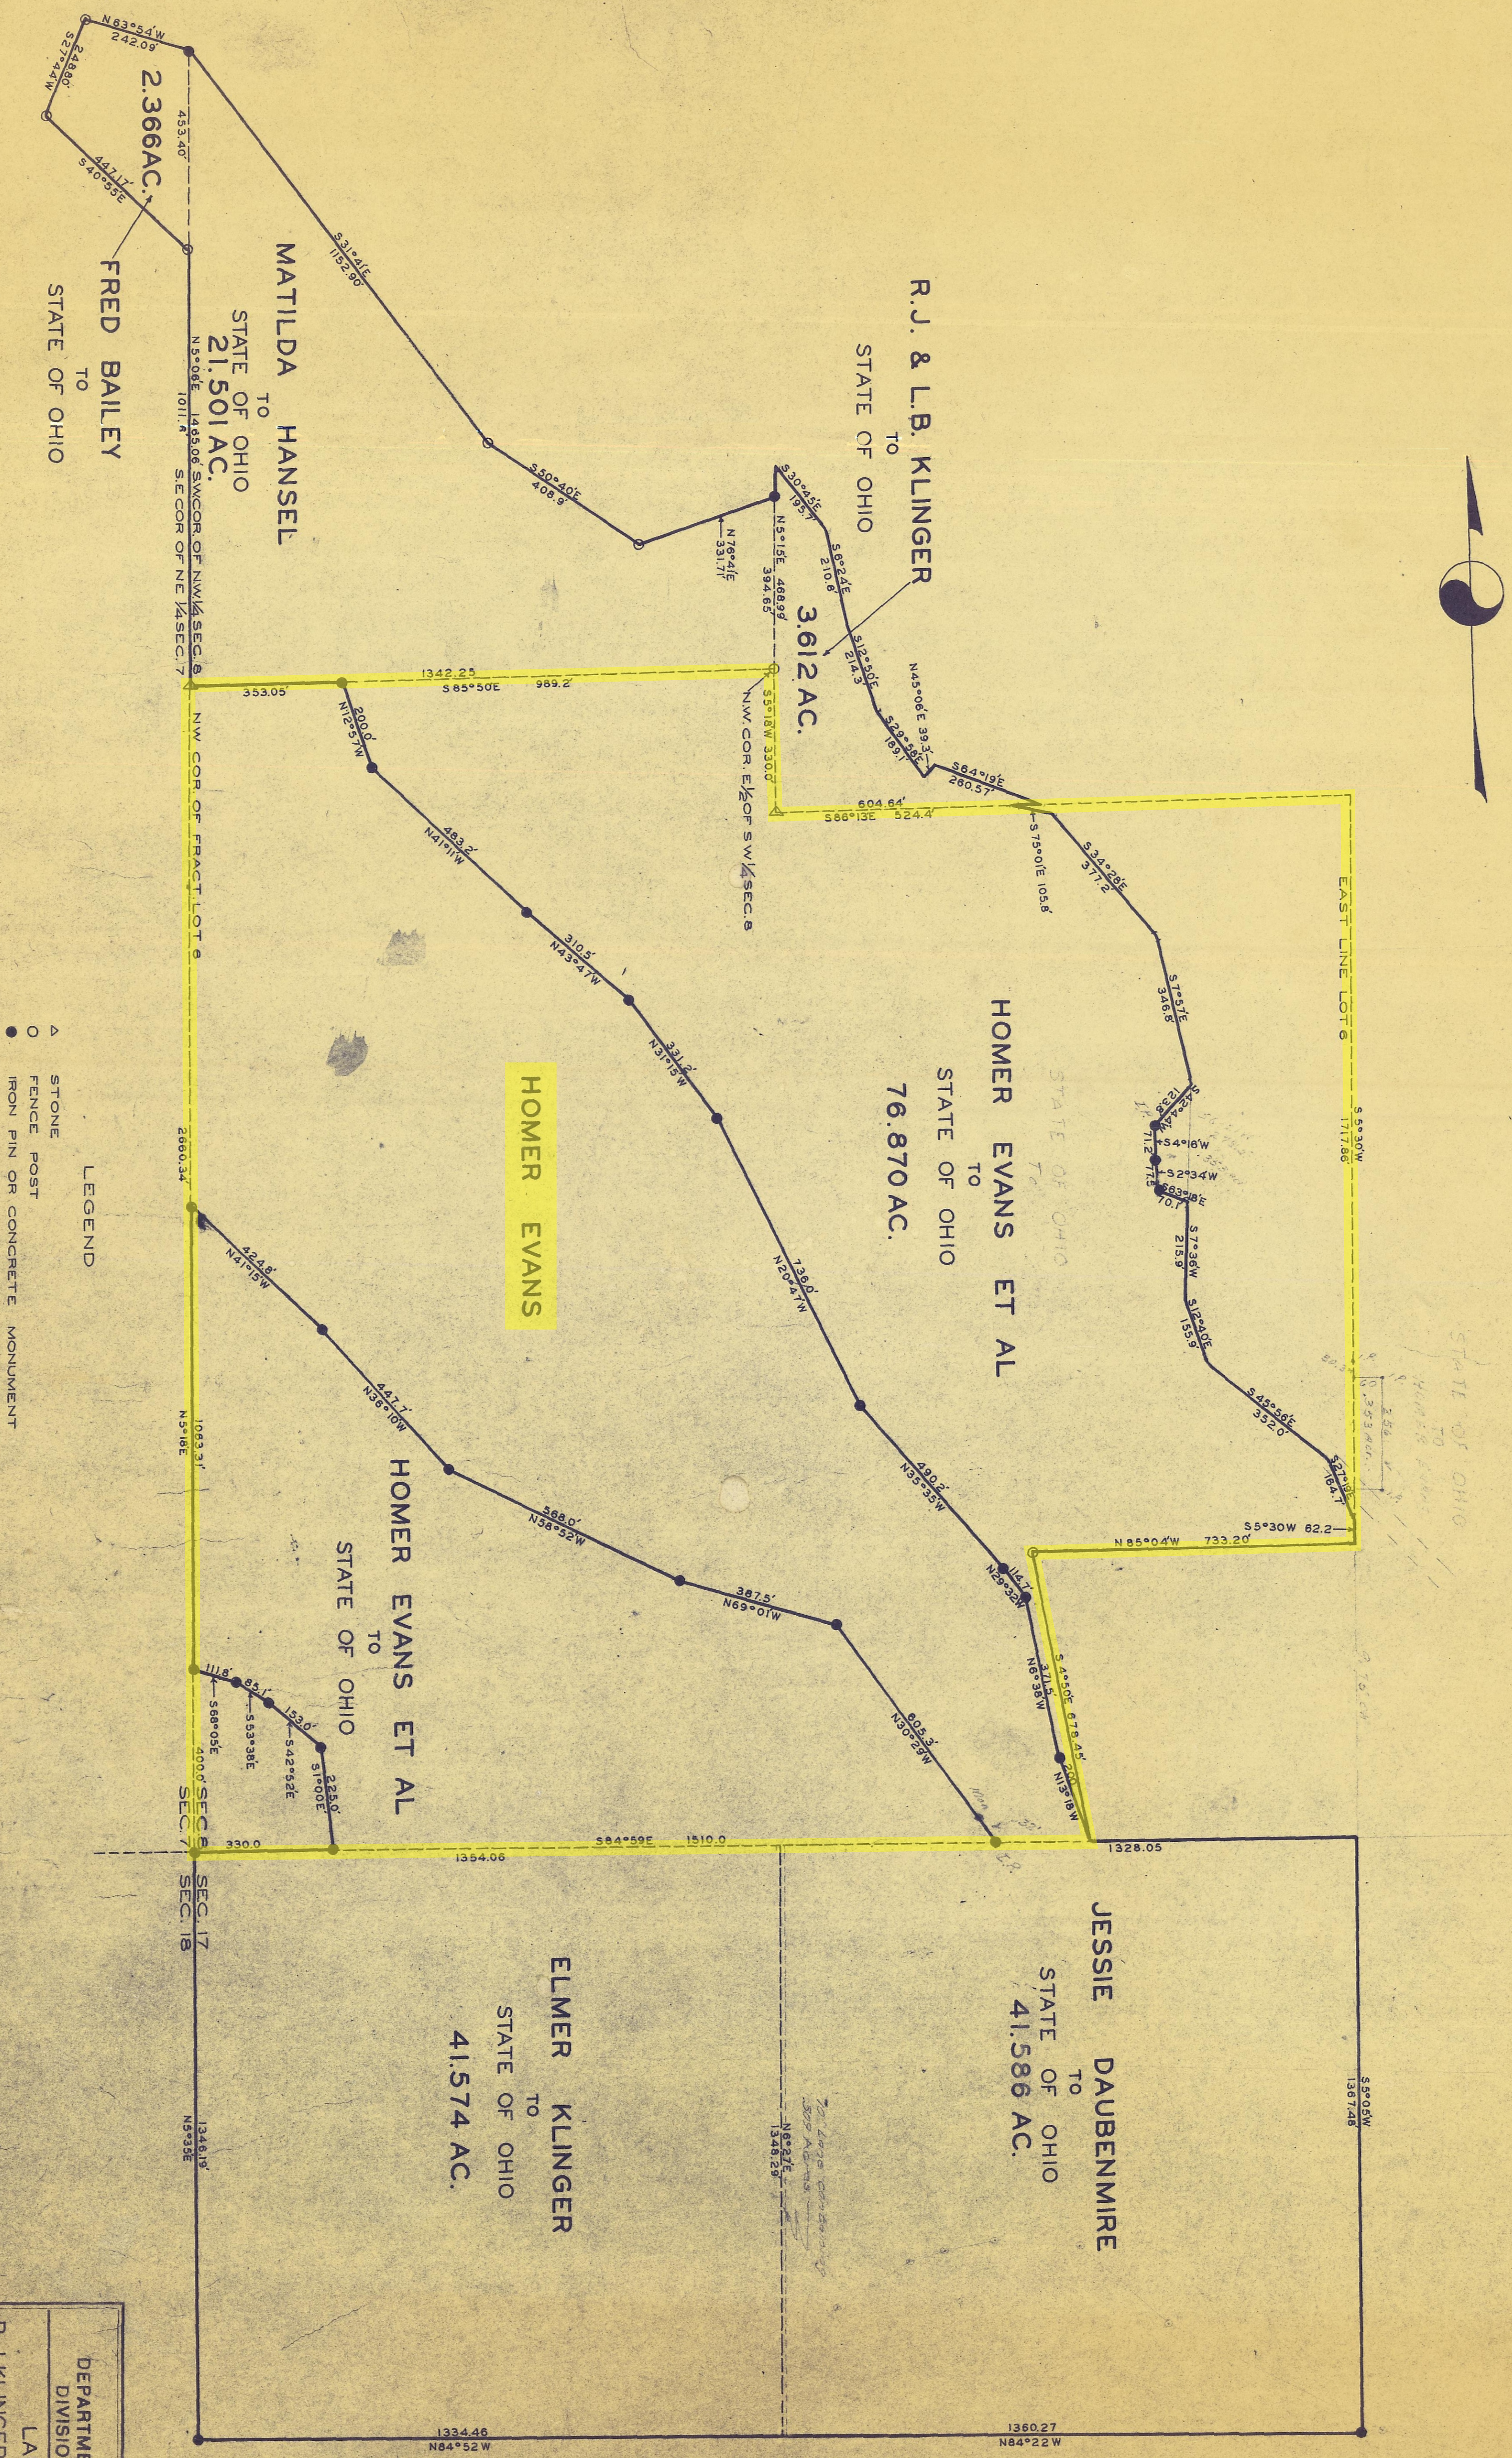

In 1945 when this survey was done the State was going to take all of Evans' property except 0.100 acre. The survey was later revised and the State only took 76.870 acres leaving Evans the newly formed peninsula. See revised survey attached herein.
