THE CHRIS  ATWOOD
FOUNDATION

The Chris Atwood Foundation is in loving memory of Chris Atwood who passed away from a heroin overdose when he was 21 years old. The Atwood family began the foundation to help others recover from addictions. Ms. Atwood is a certified master Revive trainer who has taught thousands of individuals, families, and professionals how to save lives with the overdose reversal medication, Narcan.

Mission of the Foundation

The Chris Atwood Foundation mission is to save lives from opioid overdose, support recovery from substance use disorder, and defeat the stigma of this treatable brain disease.
